

Doc's Socks

Written and Illustrated by Jennifer Cheatham

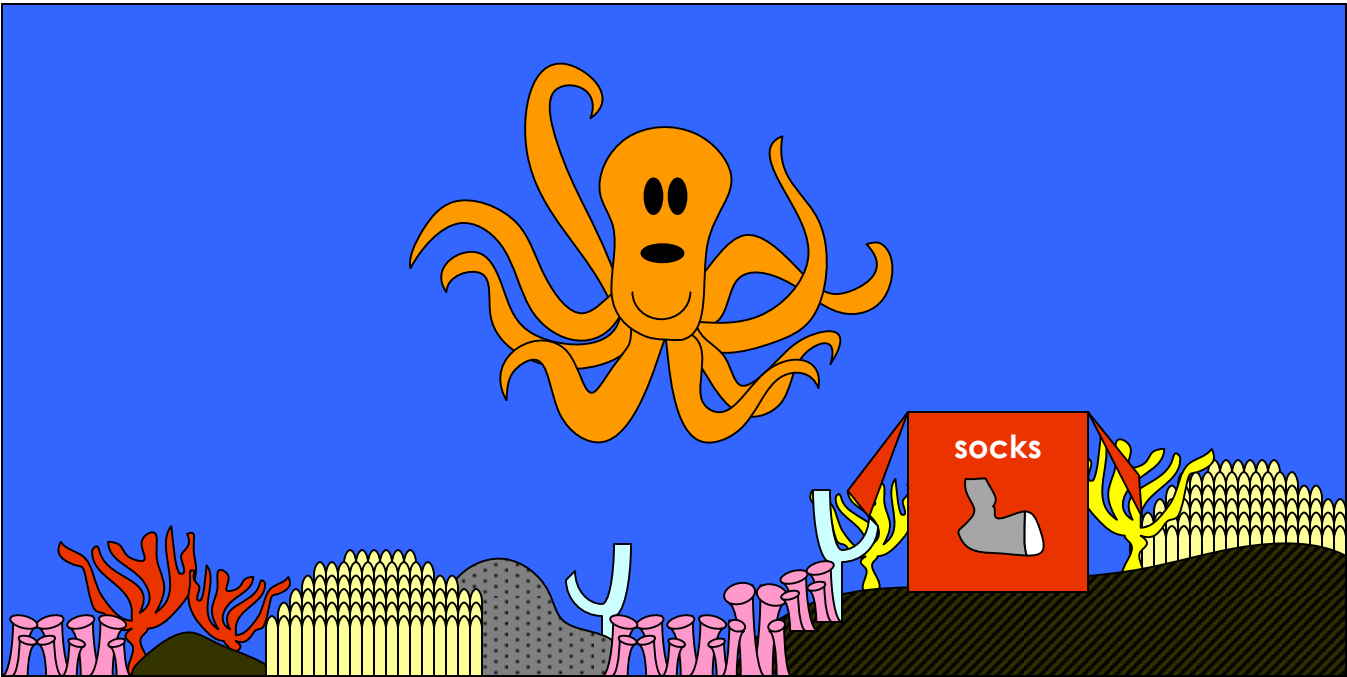

©2011 Education Inspired

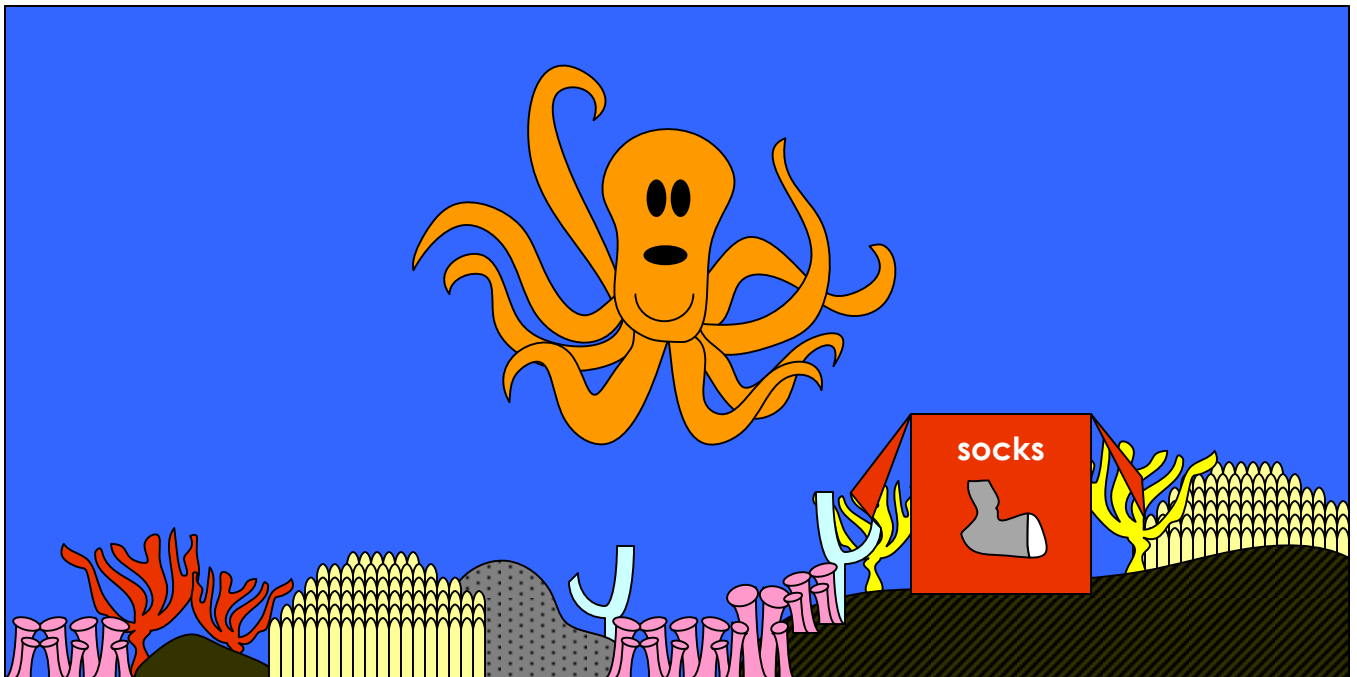

Doc's Socks

Written and Illustrated by Jennifer Cheatham

©2011 Education Inspired

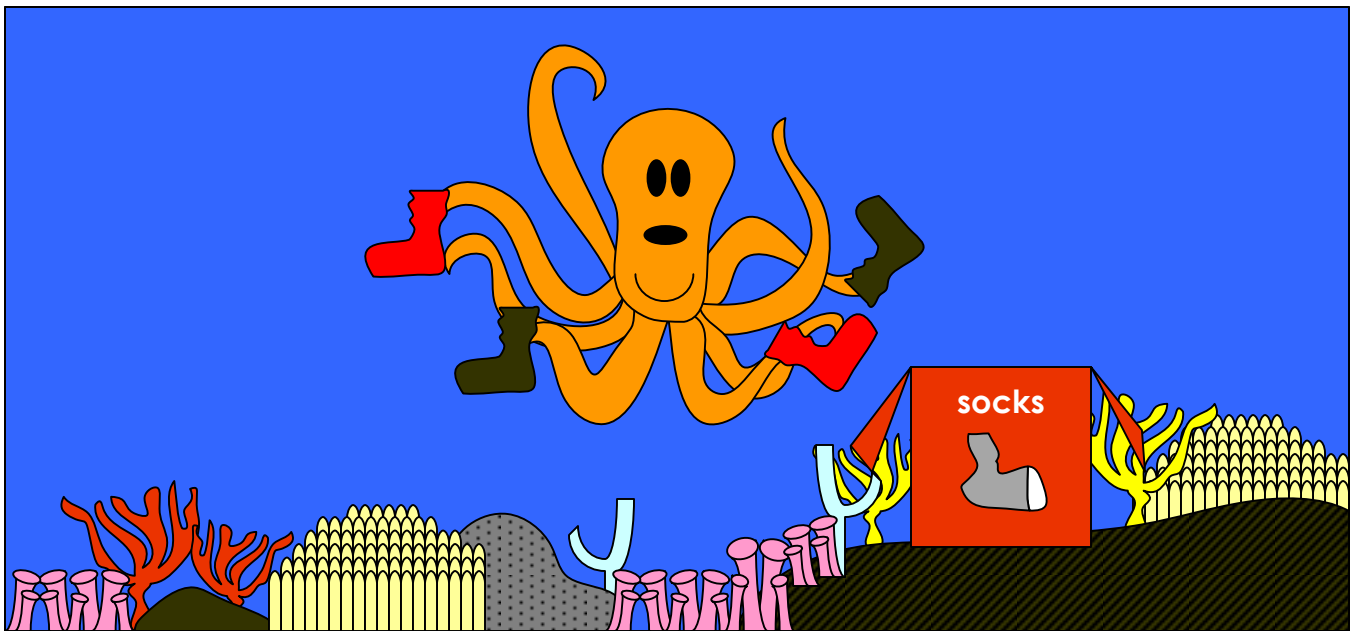

Doc likes socks. Doc has many socks.

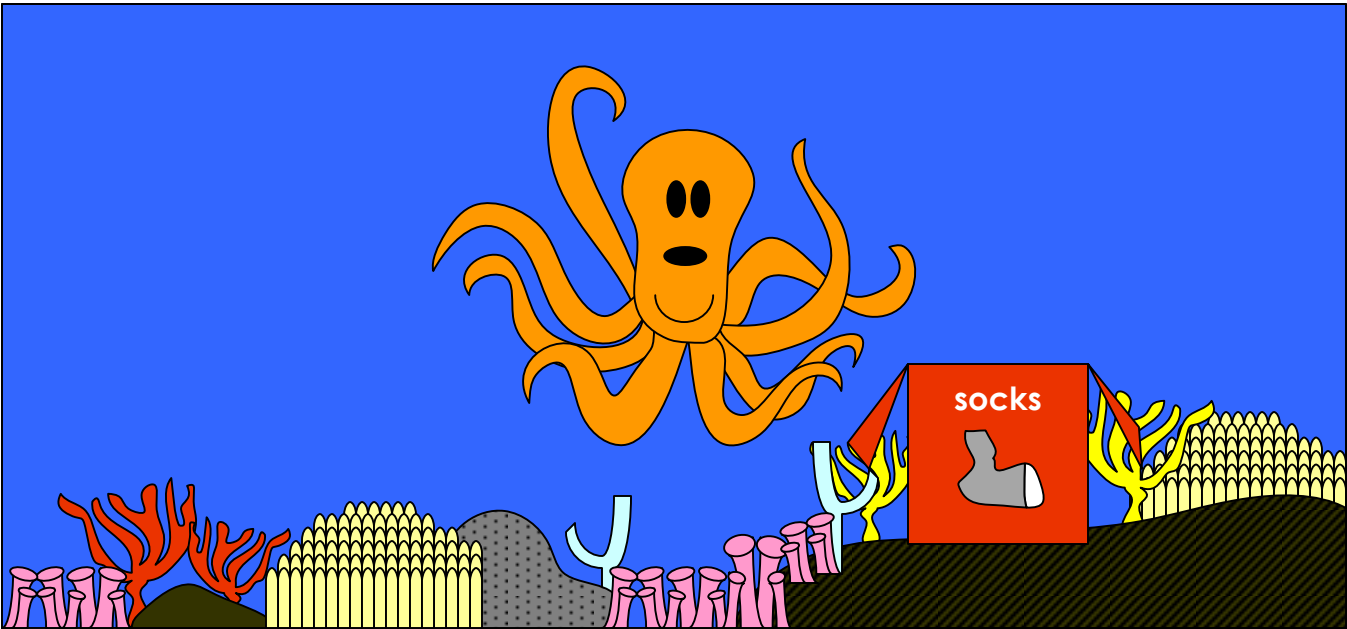

Doc has many legs and wants a lot of socks.
Doc has a lot of socks so he does not have to wash them a lot.

3

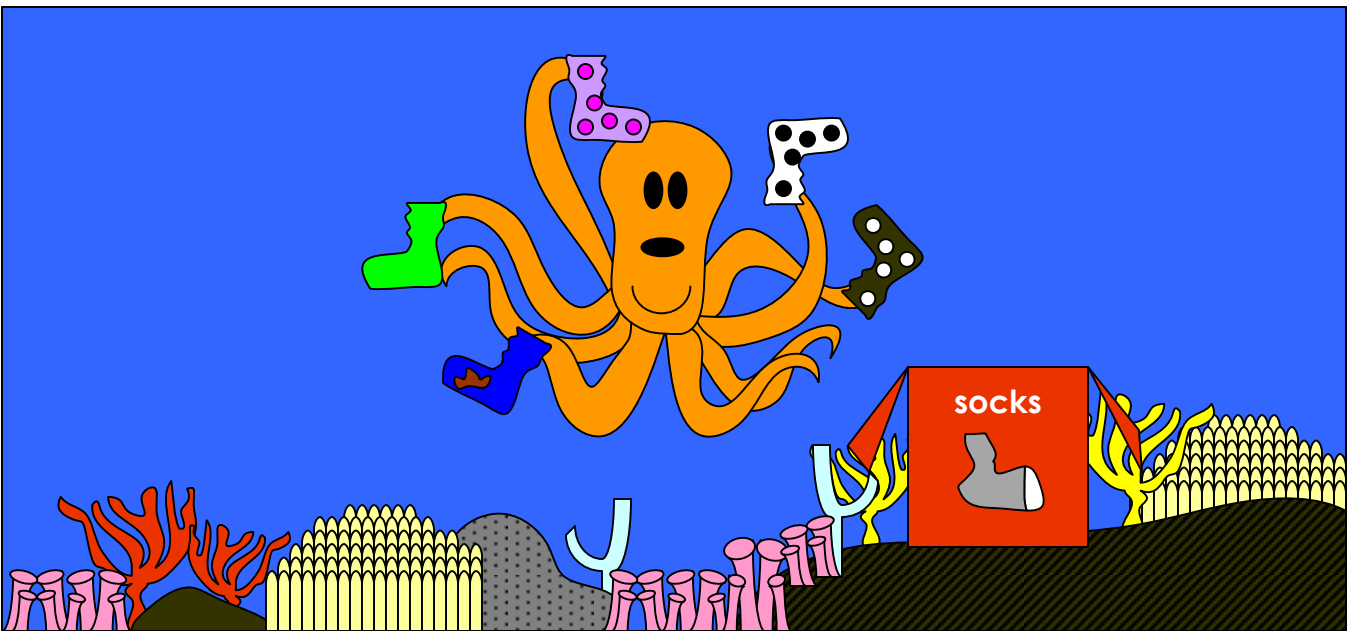

In the box, Doc puts his socks in a stack.
He has socks that are red. He has socks that are black.

5

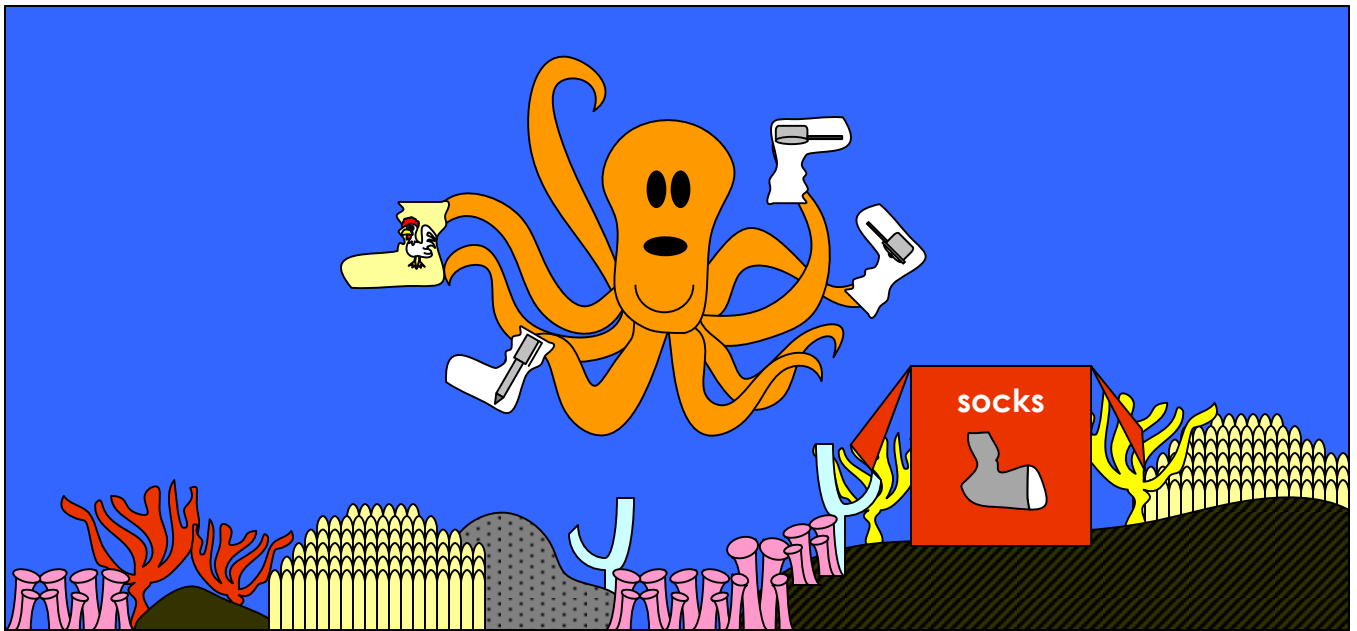

Doc thinks of what socks to put on when he sits up in bed.

4 His socks are in a big box. The big box is red.

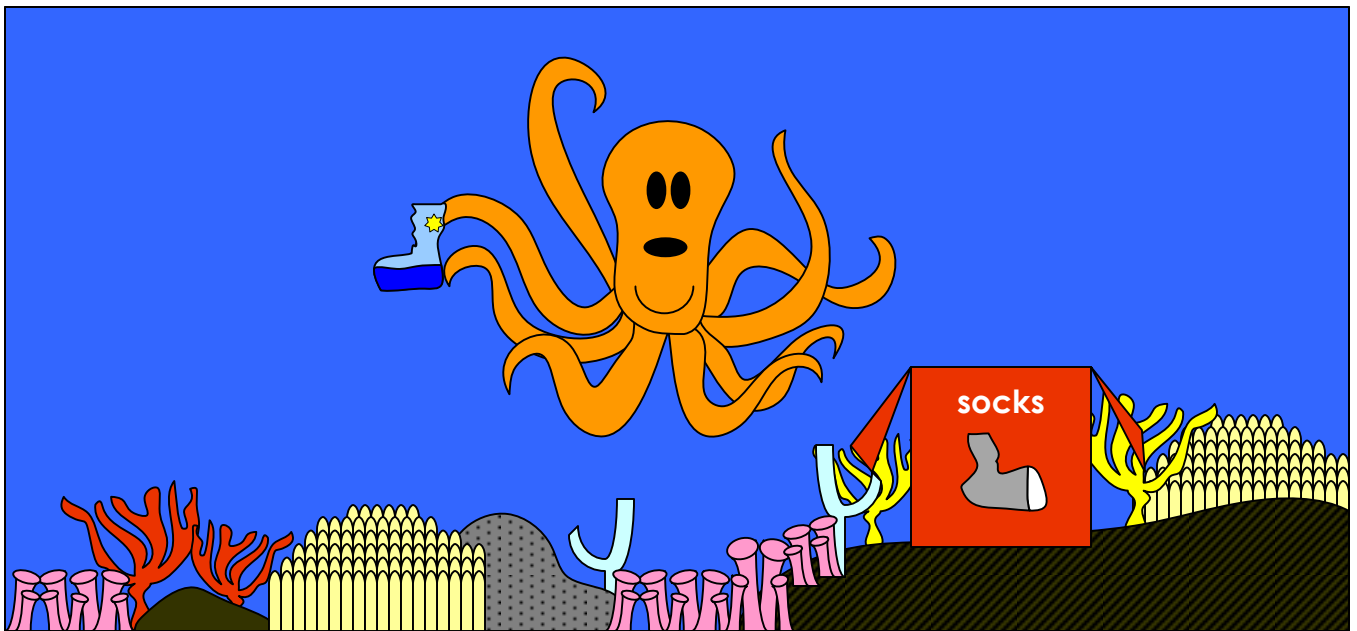

He has socks with dots. One sock has a spot.
Doc likes the dotted socks. He puts them on a lot.

6

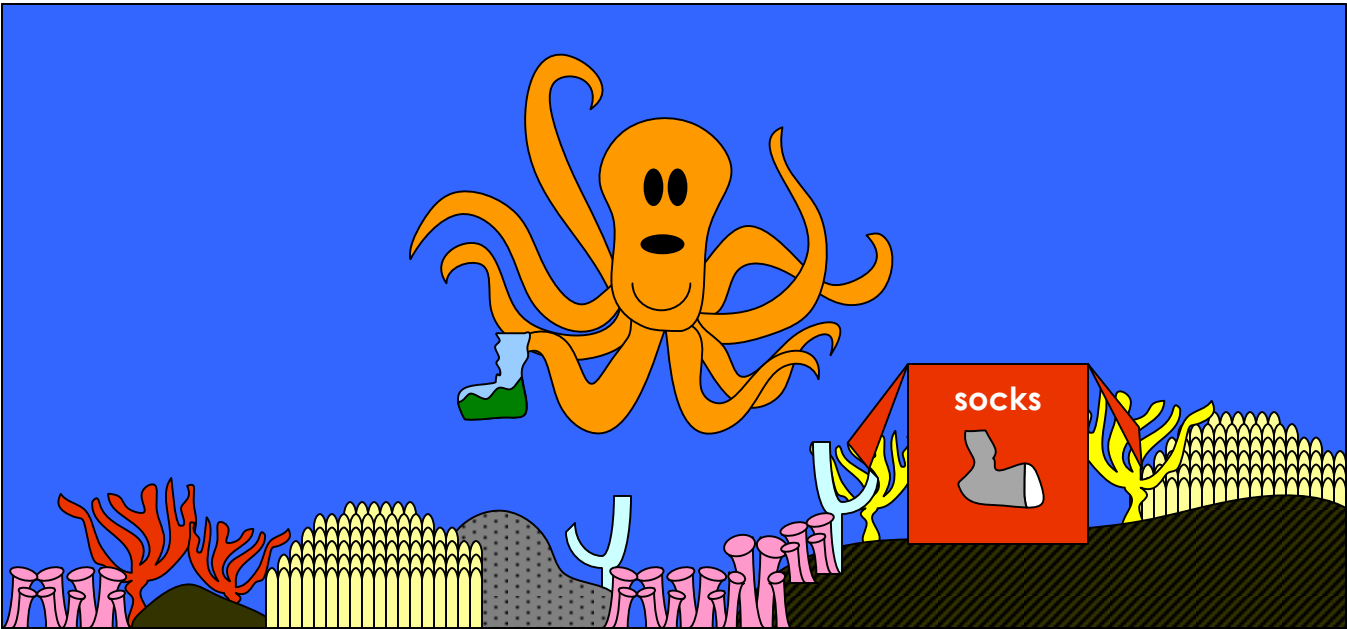

On one sock there is a pan. Doc has a sock with a hen.
Doc has a sock with a pot. On one sock there is a pen.

7

On one sock there is a pond and a sun.
Yes, Doc likes socks that are fun!

9

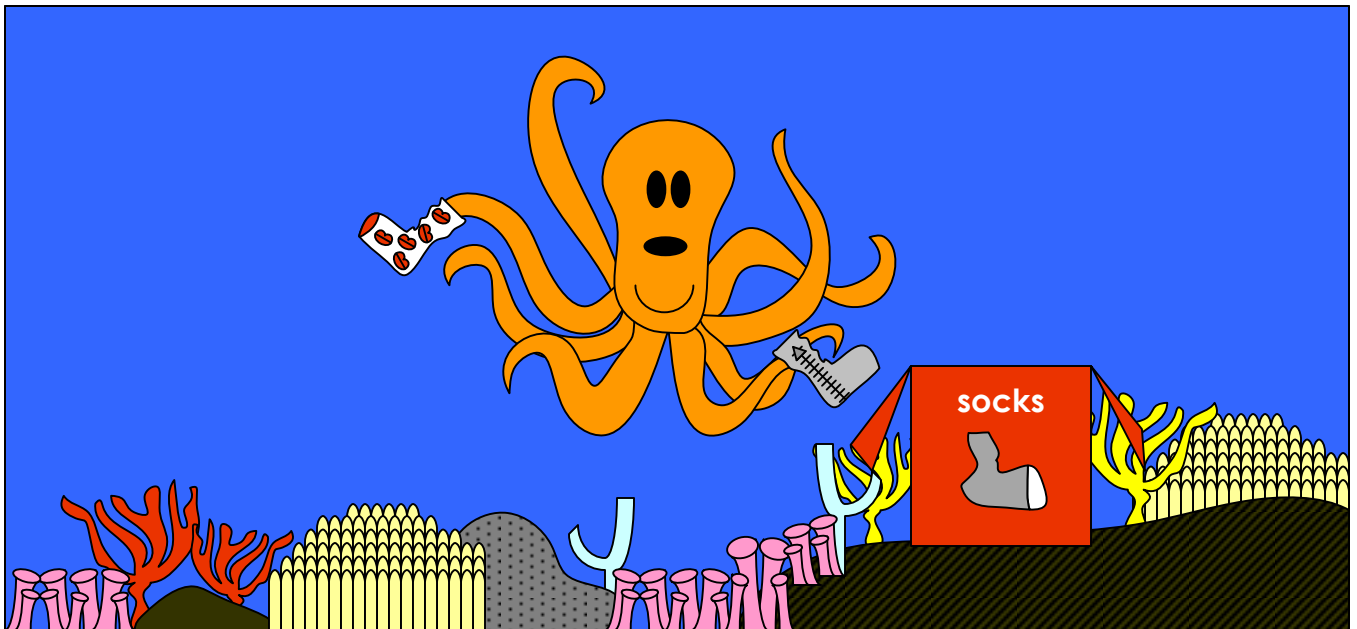

Doc has a thin sock. On the thin sock are hills.
Doc likes the sock a lot. He puts it on when he grills.

8

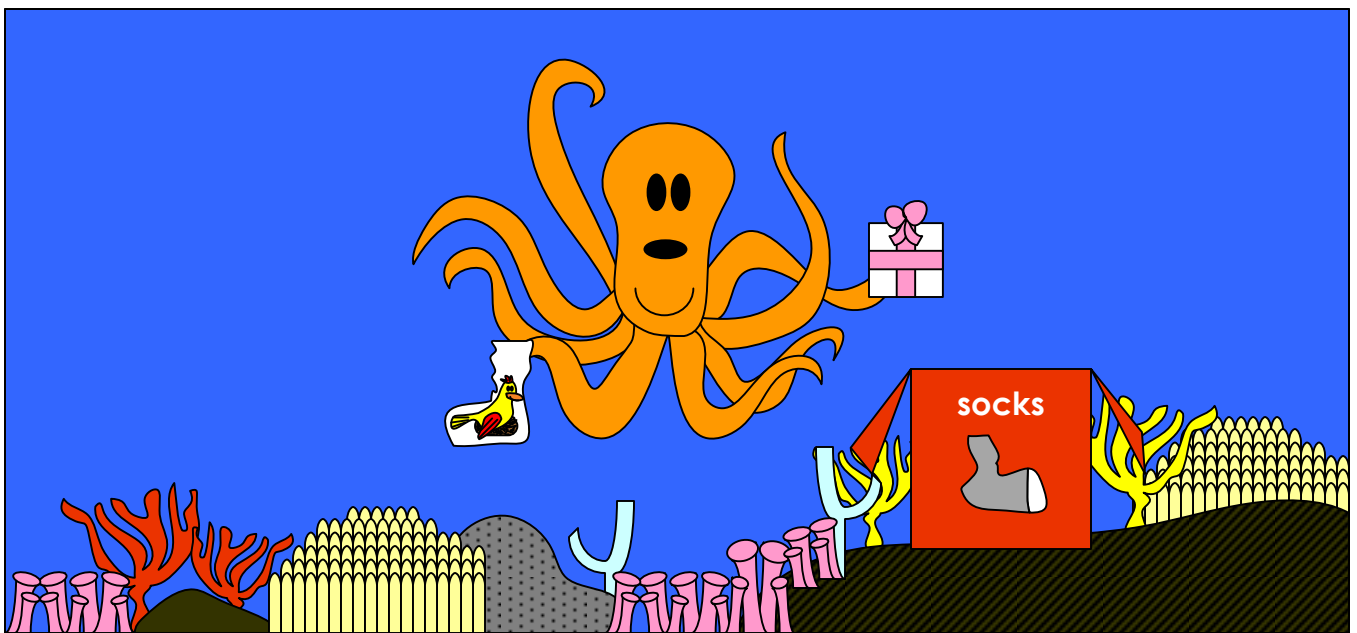

One sock looks like a cat. One sock looks like a dog.
Doc has a sock that looks like a little red frog.

10

One sock has lips like a kiss and it is red at the tip.
Doc has a sock that fits very well. It has a spot that can zip.

11

Doc likes to get socks as gifts. Socks are the gifts he likes best.
One sock Doc got as a gift has a big bird in a nest.

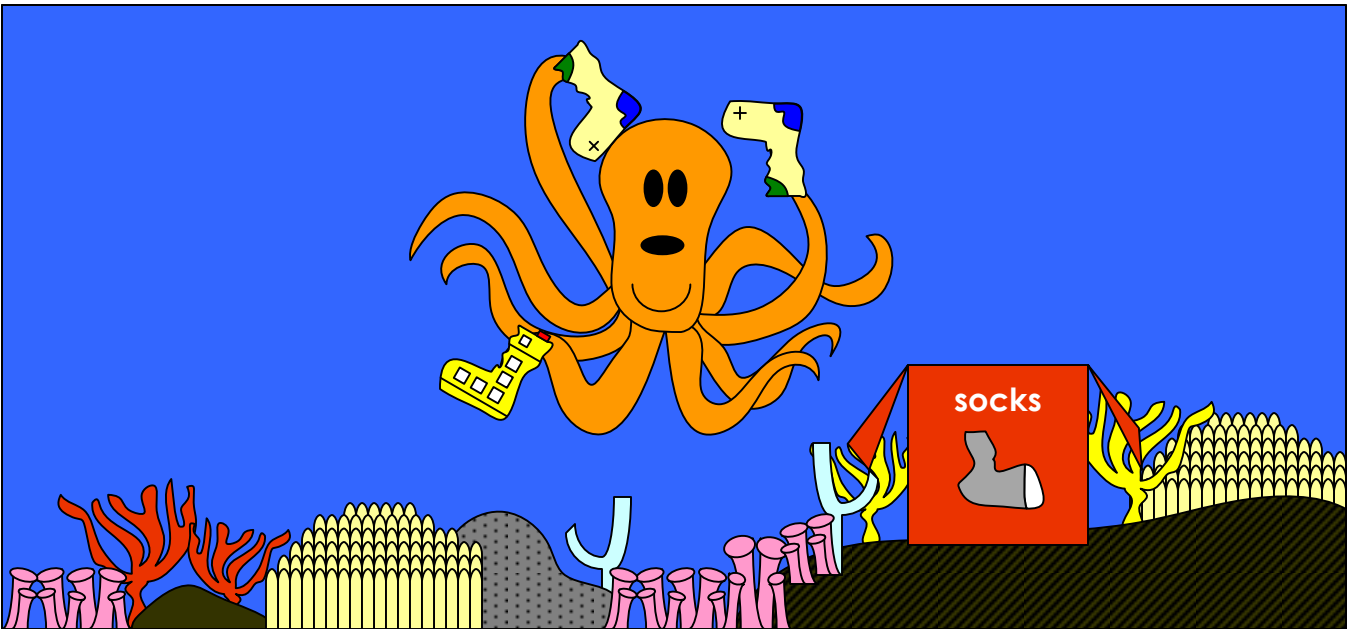

13

Doc gets socks when they do not cost a lot. He gets his socks in big packs.
One sock is a sock with a duck. When you step on the duck, it quacks.

12

One sock looks like a bus. Two socks look like maps.
2
The map socks are so soft Doc puts them on when he naps.

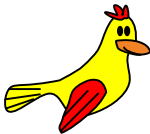

14

Yes, Doc has lots of socks. He thinks the socks are so much fun.
Doc has a lot of socks. He is glad he does not have just one.

New Words

bird

two

2

Doc is very happy when he looks at his socks.
He is glad he has so many legs and can have lots of socks.