 Read the paragraph, from John 12:1-8.

It was six days before the Passover Feast. Jesus [God's Son] came to where Lazarus lived. Lazarus was the one Jesus had raised from the dead. A dinner was given to honor Jesus. Martha served the food. Lazarus and other people were at the table with Jesus. Then Mary took about a pint of expensive perfume. She poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the sweet smell of the perfume. Judas didn't like what Mary did. He was one of Jesus' disciples [Jesus' closest friends]. Later he was going to hand Jesus over to His enemies. Judas said, "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to poor people? It was worth a year's pay." He didn't say this because he cared about the poor. He said it because he was a thief. Judas was in charge of the money bag and used to steal from it. "Leave her alone," Jesus said. "The perfume was meant for the day I am buried. You will always have the poor with you. But you won't always have Me."
