

What character would you want to be? Why?

What would you tell the character about God?

How would you encourage the character's faith?

If you were the character, what is a prayer you would pray? Why?

How could you write about this story/topic in a different genre?

What wise/foolish choices did the character make?

How would a specific part of the story be different if told from a different character's perspective?

Make a shopping list of things the character might want to buy.

How are you similar or different from the character?

Describe an aspect of the plot that you think is important.

Describe an aspect of the plot that you think is important.

Describe an aspect of the plot that you think is important.

What foreshadowing do you see, and what do you think will happen?

What sin(s) should you avoid or example(s) should you follow?

What hashtag would be appropriate for the text?

If you could do/give one thing for/to the character, what would it be? Why?

What cause do you wish you could change to avoid an unfortunate effect?

Write a recipe or equation for the text.

What Bible character can the character relate to?

What other text does this text remind you of? How?

What place from the text would you like to visit? Why?

What song matches the character or plot?

If the character had a YouTube channel, what would it be about? Describe it.

How is the author trying to influence your thoughts, beliefs, or values?

What aspect of the Sweet 16 was strong? Give an example (or two).

What aspect of the Sweet 16 would you revise/improve? Give an example.

What was your favorite part? Why?

Draw a picture that summarizes today's text.

What choice did the author make that surprised you?

What type of food did/would the character eat? Would you eat it?