

Line Maze

You can trust God. Draw a line from the person to the box that says how he or she trusted God. Write the person's name on the line in the box.

Moses Miriam Hannah Gideon

Ruth

Samuel

_____ trusted God and saved her brother.

_____ trusted God and won a fight.

_____ trusted God and got the people across the Red Sea.

_____ trusted God and married Boaz.

_____ trusted God and had a son.

_____ trusted God and spoke God's words to the people.

The maze consists of seven lines starting from the figures on the left and ending at the descriptions on the right. The connections are: Ruth to 'trusted God and got the people across the Red Sea.'; Miriam to 'trusted God and saved her brother.'; Hannah to 'trusted God and spoke God's words to the people.'; Gideon to 'trusted God and won a fight.'; Samuel to 'trusted God and had a son.'; Moses to 'trusted God and got the people across the Red Sea.'; and the empty box to 'trusted God and married Boaz.' with a small icon of a man's face.

Picture This!

Draw a picture of you trusting God or doing something that pleases God.

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners, intended for a child to draw a picture illustrating their trust in God or an act of obedience.

CHOOSE GOD'S WAY

God tells us in the Bible how He wants us to live. Draw a circle around the things you can do to make God happy. Draw an X on things that do NOT make God happy.

Love other people.

Be selfish. Think about yourself.

Trust in God.

Do not share.

Do not obey your parents.

Go to church.

Pray.

Make mean faces at other people.

Do things for other people.

Sing songs to God.

Laugh at other people.

Sleep all day.

Read the Bible.
